

FREE EVENT

NURTURING THE LEADER WITHIN

A Day for Early Childhood Leaders

Being a child care center Director is important work! Your team, your families, and the children depend on your leadership and guidance. Sometimes that load feels heavy. You are not alone.

Join us for this free training opportunity to learn and reflect together on how you as a leader can motivate and guide your team. Experience a day of connection, support, sharing, and inspiration hosted by the Center for Inclusive Child Care and Ellison Center.

Ellison  Center

Date: Friday, May 1st, 2026

Time: 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Place: Millstream Park

 725 Co Rd 75 W
St. Joseph, MN 56374

Together we will:

- Reflect on your motivation for becoming a director
- Clarify what leadership really looks like in early childhood
- Identify your strengths, growth areas, and leadership style
- Gain valuable insights and support from area colleagues and the CICC team

+ Attendees will receive credit on your Develop Learning Record, resources and tools to equip you in your work, lunch, and time to be refreshed.

+ For questions or additional information, please contact Pam Walz at Ellison Center (320) 406-1025 or pam@ellisoncenter.org