Dear Ms. Benolken:

Educator's International Press is proud to publish Joan Blaska's newly revised Using Children's Literature to Learn about Disabilities and Illness, 2nd edition. This release could be the best book of its kind in its analysis of books about children with disabilities. The guidelines for critiquing books of this genre coupled with the extensive annotated book recommendations and Joan's strategies for how to use these books make this an invaluable source for both parents and educators. This is a must read for anyone who wants to help children learn about disabilities and illnesses through young children's literature.

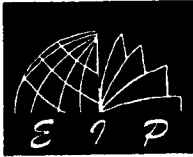

You can order the book directly from Educator's International Press for a listed price of $22.36 which reflects a 20% discount for the paper version (ISBN 1891928-24-4) and $30.36 for the cloth (ISBN 1891928-25-2). A check, Visa or Master Card can be used for payment.

We are confident you will agree that this book is every bit the resource you expect. An order form is attached for your convenience.

Sincerely,

William Clockel
